What is Backup?

A backup is a second copy of all your important files

for example, your family photos, home videos, documents and emails